View Of Lake Denmark N. J. Navy Arsenal After Disastrous Explosion And Fire

Widespread destruction resulted when a lightning bolt struck the depth bomb magazine at the Navy ammunition depot at Lake Denmark, N. J. The Navy depot was totally destroyed by the explosion of thousands of 14 and 16-inch shells and the Army ammunition depot, which adjoins it at Picatinny, was in constant danger of a similar fate. Shells were shrieking through the air for 48 hours, making it impossible for rescuers to approach and to even estimate the number of killed and wounded.

HAMILTON TO OPERATE NEW ALAMEDA HOTEL

Alameda which has under construction a community hotel which will be operated by Charles B. Hamilton, lessee of Richmond's new Hotel Carquinez, was well represented at the opening banquet last night.

C. L. Traver, president of the Alameda Chamber of Commerce whose associate, Frank B. Hally is president of the Alameda Community Hotel Co., Mrs. Traver and J. Sherman McDowell, editor of the Alameda Times-Star, general campaign manager for the Alameda community hotel company, and Mrs. McDowell with Miss Traver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Traver, were among the Alameda guests.

FLORAL PIECES GREET OPENING OF CARQUINEZ

The lobby and lounge of the Hotel Carquinez were crowded with flowers last night, sent by Richmond leading clubs, associations and the companies.

The beautiful flowers, floral pieces and big baskets of them gave color to the scene and filled the hotel with their beautiful fragrance.

The hotel force was busy finding space to place the wreaths.

The California Hotel Association sent a beautiful wreath. The Merchants Association expressed its appreciation by sending a big beautiful fern. The Mechanics Bank sent a beautiful floral piece. The service clubs who will make the banquet rooms their headquarters sent their tokens. The Rotary, Lions and Kiwanis clubs of Richmond each "said it with flowers."

The John Nicholl's company sent a large basket of flowers and occupying a prominent spot in the lobby was the big basket of flowers sent by the Richmond RECORD-HERALD.

All of the floral offerings were sent to the hotel and Senator Charles B. Hamilton wishing success to Richmond's new hotel.

Attorney Hall Sanders is planning to leave early this morning for Wilbur Springs, Colusa county, on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rihn, 1502 Bissel avenue have returned from an outing spent in the Russian river section.

FELICITATE HAMILTON ON NEW PROJECT

Telegrams of congratulations have been coming into the Hotel Carquinez during the past twenty-four hours. From the California Hotel Association, John F. Shen, president, Albert J. Loeb, secretary, came this telegram to the Chamber of Commerce and the new Hotel Carquinez last night:

"The officers and members of the California Hotel Association wish to congratulate the people of Richmond upon the event of the opening of the Hotel Carquinez by one of our most esteemed members, Senator Charles B. Hamilton, well known and highly respected by the hotelmen of this State.

"The people of Richmond are to be congratulated that this newest of California's modern hotels is to be under his directing hand.

"We wish for the Hotel Carquinez and for Senator Hamilton the fullest measure of success."

Other telegrams were from hotelmen up and down the state, and from personal friends of Senator Hamilton who know of his latest venture into the California hotel field.

WAR SCANDAL IN ALIEN PROPERTY BORAH HINTS

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, July 17.—A hitherto unknown phase of the alien property scandal was hinted by Senator Borah of Idaho, chairman of the senate inquiry into the administration of seized enemy-owned property, in taking the first step toward lifting the lid of the alien property custodian's office today.

In a letter to Howard Sutherland, alien property custodian, Borah demanded a copy of a contract entered into between former Custodian Thomas W. Miller, now under indictment, and the British government, involving $125,000,000 worth of American railroad and corporation securities, owned by former alien enemies, and now alleged to be in the hands of the British government.

Borah stated that he had been informed that the agreement is in the safe of the alien property custodian office and asked Sutherland to furnish the senate committee with all available data surrounding the unusual transaction.

ARREST MAN IN KIDNAPPING OF EVANGELIST

LOS ANGELES, July 17.—Federal agents at Glendale, Arizona, have taken into custody a man believed by the authorities to be an important link in the kidnapping of Almeda Semple McPherson according to information received here tonight.

The man under arrest is said to have given the name of Harry Moore and admitted knowing "Steve" a notorious border character. The Evangelist has declared a man named "Steve" and a woman known to her as "Rose" were her abductors.

Working on the theory that Steve can lead them to the hiding place of "Steve," United States marshalls are reported to be preparing for an expedition into the border region.

The arrest of Steve according to the belief of the Federal agents working on the case would substantiate Mrs. McPherson's story that she was kidnapped.

TWO LETTERS SENT
Two letters, one threatening, the other offering information and another mystery telegram were received by investigators in the Almeda Semple McPherson case today.

One of the letters signed "Rose" and "Pete" received late today by Deputy District Attorney Joe Ryan, threatened that officials lose unless he "lay off the case."

The other letter is signed "Pete" and is reported to be the man who drove the kidnapper's car. The writer declares his readiness to reveal all of the circumstances surrounding the kidnapping of Mrs. McPherson. Both letters bore a San Francisco postmark. No credit is placed in either of them by the investigators. The "Mystery Telegram" believed to have been sent by the energetic real estate man in Norfolk Va. drew attention to a real estate boom there was addressed to the mayor and the Grand Jury and signed "Kenneth Orniston."

"I intend to clean up in Norfolk, real estate boom," the message read. Will sue Los Angeles if you don't stop writing stories about me. Will not leave Norfolk until I clean up big. Cut out the pum stuff or you will pay dear for it."

COMMUNITY HOTEL IS OFFICIALLY OPENED PARK PURCHASE MAY BE ILLEGAL

ALVARADO PARK LEASE MAY BE RULED INVALID

Ruling by Court of Appeals in San Francisco Case May Be Far Reaching

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—The city of San Francisco, through the city attorney's office has petitioned the Supreme Court of the state for a hearing of the recent case in which the State Court of Appeal decided that the purchase by the city of the installment plan of the land on which the Fleischacker pool has been erected is illegal. If the Supreme Court refuses a hearing in the matter, the decision of the appeal court will stand and it is maintained that under it the purchase of the land by the city is voided and that further payment from public funds will be illegal.

The point made by a suing property owner under injunction proceedings was that no municipality had the right to make any purchase that could not be paid for out of the appropriations of the year in which the purchase was made, excepting in case of bond issues, and that no succeeding board of supervisors of San Francisco could be pledged to make subsequent payments on land bought under installment plan.

The situation is an embarrassing one to San Francisco, as the pool has been constructed at a cost of many thousands of dollars and plans will be made to secure the land purchase in some way if the Supreme Court ruling is not favorable.

May Effect Local Park Purchase

The case of this land deal in San Francisco is said to be on all fours with the purchase of Alvarado park in Richmond.

In case the ruling does apply to the Alvarado park installment acquisition it would make it illegal for the city council to make any more payments on the park property. Neither would the city be able to get back installments already paid. One way out would be to get title to a portion of the property to make up for what has already been paid to the owners of the park and then buy another slice yearly out of the succeeding yearly tax funds.

City Manager James A. McVittie questioned yesterday about the matter stated that it had not been brought before any member of the city council since the decision was made a few days ago.

The Alvarado park is being leased by the city of Richmond with the option to buy at any time with the money paid on the lease going toward the purchase price.

Although it could not be confirmed yesterday it is reported that the property under question in San Francisco was being leased under a similar plan. If this is the case the ruling of the State Court of Appeal would apply to the local park.

What is said to have been the first rattlesnake that has appeared in the district in years was killed in Pinole a few days ago. J. Pawley, of the Nob Hill section, killed a large-sized rattlesnake in his back yard.

Must Finish Present Project At Waterfront Before Another Appropriation Can Be Made

CHARLES F. CURRY

A re-survey of the Richmond Harbor and an addition appropriation from the government for improvements at the local waterfront will not be possible until the present project is completed and the funds appropriated by the government for the work are expected.

This statement was made to the RECORD HERALD yesterday by Charles F. Curry, congressman from this district who in company with his son H. Curry visited Richmond yesterday.

Curry was enthusiastic over the development made in Richmond recently and seemed especially pleased with the new community hotel "Carquinez."

"With this hotel, no one will have any excuse for not staying in Richmond. It is I believe one of the finest hotels I have seen and is certainly a big boost to the city of Richmond," Curry stated.

In discussing the conditions in Richmond and the surrounding territory Curry said in part:

"This certainly is a favored section. I wonder if people realize that over $400,000,000 worth of manufactured products were sent out of Richmond and the surrounding territory during the past year as compared with $325,000,000 for Los Angeles. Naturally $150,000,000 of the local figure was represented in oil but it must be included in the total to get the correct figure. And that figure does not include the agricultural products which will run into many millions more."

In discussing the waterfront situation in Richmond and the surrounding territory Curry stated that he believed the developments which have been made at the local waterfront were such that the United States Army engineers would approve the expenditure of the remainder of the money in the fund which was allowed to the Richmond harbor some time ago.

This would necessitate the city of Richmond matching each government dollar with another dollar to secure the desired improvement.

Until the money, at present in this fund, is used for the completion of the survey on which it was granted no other appropriation will be made by Congress according to Curry. This is a rule of that body as well as the United States Engineers in charge of the work he pointed out.

As soon as this project is completed, then an appeal may be made for more funds or another survey for recommended improvements which will then be included in another bill put before Congress.

No rivers and harbors bill other than that passed by the House during the session just ended will be taken up by Congress this fall according to Curry. The bill must still pass the Senate but this will take place some time in December or early in January is the estimation of Curry.

Although Richmond is not directly included in this bill it does include territory immediately adjacent. Projects included are: The dredging of the Pinole shoals to a depth of 35 feet at mean low or low water which is equivalent to 41 feet at high water to a width of 600 feet; dredging along Contra Costa shore line to a depth of 26 feet for a 100 foot bottom width with a top width of 300 feet; the dredging of a channel 26 feet deep to Stockton and the dredging of a 10 foot channel to Sacramento. The Mare Island straits are to be dredged to a depth of 30 feet with a turning basin of 1000 feet wide. This project will be 600 feet in width with the exception of the turning basin.

PADLOCKS PUT ON POLITICAL SLUSH FUNDS

(By Universal Service)
By WILLIAM P. FLYTHE
WASHINGTON, July 17.—Padlocks were applied to bulging political war chests today when warning was received that the senate slush investigating committee, meeting in Chicago a week from tomorrow, will keep a watchful eye on the remaining primaries.

Although the Republicans admit they are facing a hard fight to maintain control, Senator Deen of Illinois, chairman of the campaign committee, declared that the campaign would be "very economically conducted." This means, it was explained, that the $450,000 fund which the Republicans have expended, will spread over such a large area that it will cause little if any excitement.

The Democrats claim, according to Senator Gerry, Rhode Island chairman of the senate campaign committee, that they have nothing to spend nor anything to fear; just $25,000 which will be but a tiny drop in the bucket, as primary buckets go.

It was pointed out that it will be next to impossible to conceal the rays of glittering gold from the committee. Either side in a primary, race will have informers in the camp of the enemy.

But even in the face of a senate investigation such as that now being conducted, "friends" of candidates, without their "knowledge or consent" may spend "under cover" money. Many of those seeking office are millionaires, or have friends in this class who are not reluctant to loosen up the purse strings.

The committee has served warning that "mysterious friends with mysterious bags of cash will find themselves looking across the table at Senator James Reed, compelled to answer embarrassing questions.

Celebration At Opening Of Hotel

Richmond Makes Merry as Hotel Carquinez is Opened With Program and Dance

By THE WANDERING NOMAD
Way back when we first started torturing a typewriter to tell the people what was happening we were hopelessly stumped on a lead for a big story. After chewing the end of a pencil for an hour more or less a veteran in the game leaned over our shoulder and in a low whisper said "One little word after another."

Since that day the incident has come to our mind on several occasions but it never failed us until just this minute as we sit down to try to describe the opening of the new Hotel Carquinez last night. Little words may be adequate to describe some events but it would take big words and many of them to describe last night's event in the manner that it warrants.

We don't know whether to start with the opening of the program when E. M. Downer, president of the Hotel Company "broke the neck" from the bottle of champagne—a real kick—which officially opened the dedication program of when Mayor Mattie A. Chandler welcomed the visitors and lauded those who made the hotel possible, or still later when Richmond danced in joyous glee on the new floors of the dining room.

There were smiling faces everywhere from the first course of the dinner until the last dance was over. There were those who enjoyed themselves on the dance floor while others wandered about the hotel inspecting every nook and corner. We even found one man applying a test to the drapes in the lounge while another turned a chair over to study the grain in the wood of the unvarnished surfaces. These and similar scenes indicated that Richmond was enjoying the opening of its new hostelry and also that it was making sure that everything was as represented.

MANY ATTEND DEDICATION OF CARQUINEZ

Chamber of Commerce Sponsors of Project Act as Hosts

With the Richmond Chamber of Commerce acting as hosts, and Mayor Mattie A. Chandler and E. M. Downer president of the hotel company acting as head of the reception committee including representatives from every organization in the city the Richmond community hotel, "The Carquinez" was officially dedicated last night.

P. M. Sanford president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce acted as toastmaster during the banquet and addresses during the banquet. Immediately after the banquet the floor was cleared and dancing was enjoyed.

The more than 200 guests entered the Carquinez last night under a canopy of American flags and other exterior and interior decorations, which had been arranged by the entertainment committee, including C. C. Kratzer, chairman, F. B. LaMoine, W. F. Cooper, Bert Tucker, Hall Sanders, and Marie Jensen.

In the opening of the new Hotel Carquinez, Richmond takes its place as a first-class hotel city. The hotel has one hundred guest rooms and is modern throughout.

The new hostelry becomes the tenth in a chain of hotels operated by the Charles B. Hamilton company throughout California. Hamilton himself was present last night to receive the congratulations of the hundreds who attended the grand opening event.

Richmond's first first-class hotel is a reality.

A few days more than a year ago the project for a community hotel was first brought before the Chamber of Commerce. This body saw the possibilities and immediately gave its approval of the plan. A few weeks later a drive for funds was inaugurated and in ten days $205,000 was subscribed by 600 Richmond men and women.

Prize Awarded To Winner Of Essay Contest To Name The New Community Hotel

One of the interesting features of last night's grand opening of the new Hotel Carquinez was the presentation of a check for $25 to Miss Helen Carpenter, in behalf of Robert Wren, Richmond High school student, her cousin.

Robert Wren named the new hotel. He was the winner of the contest inaugurated by the Richmond Chamber of Commerce among the high school students for the best essay on a name for the city's community hotel. It was Robert's essay that won the cash prize of $25.

Miss Carpenter, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Carpenter, in accepting the gift check read her cousin's prize-winning essay, as follows:

"The Strait of Carquinez, for years a dividing line between Northern California and the bay region, will, when bridged, not only makes transportation more convenient, but the people of the northern part of the state, who for years have considered the ferry trip across the strait a voyage into foreign territory, will be more closely united to the people of the bay region through the bridge.

"Richmond, the first large city on this side of the strait, will derive untold benefits from the bridge, which I believe will do for present-day Richmond what the harbor did for old Richmond. Consequently, I believe that the hotel should be named 'Hotel Carquinez.'"

Robert was not able to appear in person as he is vacationing with his father in Nevada county and could not make the trip to Richmond.

E. M. Downer, president of the Richmond Community Hotel, Inc., said that there was no question as to who should have the prize offered by the Chamber of Commerce when Robert Wren's essay was submitted to the board of directors of the hotel company.

V. F. W. NATIONAL HOME TO HAVE NEW BUILDINGS

No need to say "Smile!" It comes natural to Howard Pollett and his sister Mary after a year at the Veterans of Foreign Wars National Home for widows and orphans of ex-service men at Eaton Rapids, Michigan.

ACCOMMODATIONS for more families will be provided this summer at the V. F. W. National Home for widows and orphans of ex-service men by four new buildings now being erected on the Home grounds at Eaton Rapids, Michigan.

"The need of enlarging our Home facilities by adding to it more buildings and giving it sufficient endowment funds to carry on its service for the ever-increasing family groups of widows and orphans of our deceased comrades is pressing," said Albert J. Babing, past Commander in Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and President of the National Home, in commenting on the new buildings. "Official records show that deaths directly traceable to service origin averaged more than 4,500 yearly for the past three years. Even at the conservative estimate of one-third of this number as the basis of those who left dependent families, the need of the Home is evident."

"When such dependents require help, we do not ask if the man was a V. F. W. member. We only ask if he served honorably in the forces of the United States. If an ex-service man is disabled to such an extent that he cannot support his family, arrangements will also be made to accommodate him at the Home with them."

The Home functions on a "family group" plan of small buildings, units and individual dwellings which ensures for each family a normal home environment and keeps mother and children together. Cases to be admitted to the Home in the near future from various parts of the country include a mother in Louisiana, recently widowed, with four children; a war-gassed veteran in Connecticut, with two little girls, one eight and one ten years old; and five children left orphaned in the Far West.

In laying out the ground plan of the Home site, which covers 472 acres, provision has been made for future expansion so that it can eventually accommodate 1500 children. Athletic grounds, a community center, a school, and a community church are included in the plans.

Officers of the Gustaf Vasa lodge were installed last night at the Woodmen hall before a large group of members of the lodge and visitors.

The new officers installed were: President Dave Erickson; vice-president, C. Carlson; chaplain, Mrs. S. Psiel; financial secretary, Mrs. Cora Psiel; treasurer, Mrs. E. Johnson and major at arms, Carl Psiel.

Following the ceremony a supper was served and dancing was enjoyed.

In making his demand, Borah raised the question as to whether the alien property custodian was negligent in seizing all enemy-owned property that he had, the right to seize by permitting this vast amount of American securities to remain in British hands. At the same time, Borah said that he had information that negotiations were now in progress between this government and the Canadian government relative to alien property and asked for full information.

At the outbreak of the World War, the senate stated, the American securities, including shares in the Pennsylvania, Baltimore & Ohio, New York Central and U. S. Steel corporation, were delivered to the British public trustee, corresponding to the American alien property custodian, as "being enemy owned."

"When the United States entered the war, the trading with the enemy act was passed, the alien property custodian seized these stocks for the book of the respective companies and all right, title and interest of the enemy owner," wrote Borah.

"This matter was litigated in the name of Miller vs. Kaliwerke. Some phases of the legal provisions also were decided by the Supreme Court January 26, 1925. In this opinion the Court says: 'If the United States had taken steps to assert the paramount power as in Miller vs. Kaliwerke, a different question would arise that we have no occasion to deal with. The United States has taken no such steps. It, therefore, stands in its usual attitude of indifference when title to the certificates is lawfully obtained.'"

In the absence of Sutherland from the city, officials at the alien property custodian's office declined to comment on Borah's request. Sutherland's reply and the alleged contract between Miller and the British government are expected to reveal whether the alien property custodian seized all the property owned by aliens that he was entitled to seize.

War On Bobbed Hair Started by Czech Comb Works

(By Universal Service) BERLIN, July 17.—The Czechoslovakian comb and hairgoods industries have received the inside tip from the Paris hair trimming industry to resume production of goods, fashionable with long hair, according to Prague reports.

Paris is believed therefore to be organizing a new drive for the abolition of the bob and the return of long hair—urged for more than a year but so far in vain.

Abbe Moreux Says Einstein is Wrong

By FRANK E. MASON (By Universal Service) PARIS, July 17.—Einstein's celebrated theory of relativity is all wrong, declares Abbe Moreux, director of the Bourges observatory. Einstein attempted to support his hypothesis by citing a number of coincidences, says the French scientist.

One by one, Abbe Moreux takes up the arguments of the father of the relativity theory, and by complicated mathematical formulae shows that Einstein was incorrect in his premises.

In the absence of Sutherland from the city, officials at the alien property custodian's office declined to comment on Borah's request. Sutherland's reply and the alleged contract between Miller and the British government are expected to reveal whether the alien property custodian seized all the property owned by aliens that he was entitled to seize.

MIRTHQUAKE IS ON THE SCREEN AT RICHMOND

A mirthquake is on its way to the Richmond Theater. It is "Rainbow Riley," the latest starring vehicle of Johnny Hines. An interesting fact in connection with this picture is that, as a play under the title "The Cub," it served as the last legitimate stage piece of Douglas Fairbanks prior to his entering pictures.

Those who have already seen "Rainbow Riley" state that Johnny is at his best in this tale of a cub reporter who is sent to the Kentucky mountains to report a feud. Arriving there, he is immediately immersed into a barrel of trouble, and it takes all his ingenuity to get out with his skin whole. This vehicle is reported to be made to order for the likable Hines, and to those who enjoy speed, laughs and thrills in their motion picture fare, "Rainbow Riley" comes to the Richmond Theatre today highly recommended.

Supporting Hines in "Rainbow Riley" are Dan Mason, Brenda Bond, a new "find," Bradley Barker, John Hamilton and Harlan Knight.

Other features on the same program include "Loves Sweet Pimple," a comedy scream; and "Kinograms" world news events.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Smedley, 236 Nevin avenue will leave for Michigan today. They will make the trip via the northern route. They expect to be gone for three weeks.

Car Crash Caused By Burning Grass

Clouds of smoke from burning grass along the roadside obscuring the view of the drivers nearly resulted in a fatal accident near Napa, Thursday night. A machine driven by L. F. Moore, of Richmond, crashed head-on with a car driven by Lloyd Cassidy, of Yountville. Albert Murbeck, an occupant of Moore's car sustained injuries necessitating hospital treatment.

Neither of the drivers were injured. Both cars were damaged.

VERSATILE BILL IS SHOWING AT THE CALIFORNIA

"Laugh, Look and Listen" is the billing of the headline attraction at the commodious California Theater on the variety section of the program today. A typical musical and dancing revue that is a little different than the usual as novelty instruments are featured with dance interpretations and costume changes in full view of the audience, a combination that is sure to please one and all.

Lottie Lake is the star of this presentation and a competent company of musicians are in support. "The Tumbling Fool" introduces Phil Godfrey and company two men one enacting the part of a clown and the other working straight. A little of most everything in the way of acrobatics are offered by these athletic demons who demonstrate some wonderful stunts in a comedy vein.

Larry O'Dowd in character comedy songs and stories is a sure-fire winner as his songs are catchy and his talk is topical and up to the minute.

Whirlwind dance steps are featured by Ted and Ethel with the modern terpsichorean efforts holding pride of place on their program. Some eccentric dance steps are also included in their repertoire.

Yaryan and Landis a versatile duo of vaudevillians with song, talk and a little dance complete the vaudeville program.

Warners have added another picture success to their steadily growing list with "Bobbed Hair," which will be the screen feature today, in conjunction with the big vaudeville bill.

Lewis Milestone adapted this popular novel by twenty authors to the screen, and Alan Crosland directed the production.

Marie Prevost plays the role of a charming but willful young lady, who decides between her suitors by the question of "to bob or not to bob"; and who becomes involved in a series of adventures that bring her a new suit and a solution to her problem of choice between her old ones. It is a thoroughly enjoyable production and one of the best of the current season.

Other features on the same program include "Squirrel Food," a comedy scream; "Kinograms" world news events; Carl Richard's California Orchestra; and Larry Canelo, at the organ.

Servants Sue Relatives of Franz Josef

(By Universal Service)

BERLIN, July 17.—Emperor Franz Josef I left to his children and grandchildren a total of $8,000,000 Austrian gold crowns, or $17,500,000.

This was revealed in a suit of three former personal valets of the late Emperor against the heirs for a violation of their pensions which Franz Josef had provided for them in his will but which have been wiped out by the inflation. The pension would now amount to $20 a month.

The heirs sued are Princess Windisch-Grätz, Princess Gisela of Bavaria and the estate of Hapsburg. The former valet have turned to their emperor personal heirs because the entire fortune of the Hapsburg dynasty was confiscated without pension by the Austrian republic. Princess Windisch-Grätz has filed an answer in which she pleads her own poverty, also due to the inflation, as reason why she cannot pay the sums demanded.

Mystery Surrounds Refusal to Land

(By Universal Service)

LONDON, July 17.—The "Daily Express" Southampton correspondent says mystery surrounds the continued refusal of William Griers, chauffeur for Mrs. Louise W. Lewis of Florida, to land after his arrival aboard the Olympic at Southampton Thursday.

Griers, who was hired to drive Mrs. Lewis' car for four months on a tour of Europe, decided at the last minute not to land, vaguely expressing his fear of arrest.

Scotland Yard detectives and American Consul Savage at Southampton said Griers appeared to be laboring under the delusion that he was entering England under false pretenses.

The chauffeur today was taken to a hospital to await reshipment to New York, while Mrs. Lewis left for London.

GRACE LUTHERAN CHURCH

Ed Men's hall, Eleventh street and Nevin avenue.
S. T. Himes, Ph.D. pastor. Residence 720 Nevin avenue; E. J. Evans, superintendent of Sunday school.
Sunday school begins at 10 o'clock. Subject of lesson, "The Fall of Moses." Golden text: "Certainly I will be with thee." Moses is to come and receive his commission from the Lord and then go in the Lord's name and with the Lord's presence. The Lord promised him success and assured him of help. The Lord's call is extended to children today through the Sunday school. And by faithful instruction the world is made better.

At the 11 o'clock service the sermon by the pastor will be on the subject, "Going to the Multitude." Multitudes followed Christ for various reasons. Christ could supply all their needs. Christ's followers today need preparation through searching the Scriptures, and by prayers under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Then they must go to the multitudes and lead them through their knowledge and experience and life to know Christ that they, too, may follow Him and the way of salvation. The multitudes are in great need today. Obedience to the gospel message will change the world and make it better for all mankind. Would not such a change be acceptable to every one?
Grace Lutheran Church invites both friends and strangers with a welcome hand to come to these services and co-operate for this better condition.

GERMAN STEEL TRUST SEEKS TO END WASTE

(By Universal Service)

BERLIN, July 17.—Greater efficiency, simplifications of work and elimination of waste in order to make possible a "rational" mass production and increase the profitability of the works—these are the aims of the recent merger of eight of the biggest German steel and iron works into the German Steel Trust, as candidly stated by the head of the new trust, Dr. Albert Voegler, the "Judge Gary of Germany."
With a capital stock of 800,000,000 marks and an additional 125,000,000 marks in preference shares, with plants valued at 2,500,000,000 marks and close to 200,000 employees, the German steel trust, going under the name of Vereinigte Stahlwerke, A. G., is the biggest single concern in Germany and one of the biggest in the world.

Germany In Forefront

It places Germany more than ever in the forefront among the steel-producing countries of the world, and makes her an even bigger competitor in the world's markets than heretofore.

But the German steel trust is not the precursor of a European steel trust, or any world trust. Voegler made it clear. Any international agreements between the German and the French or English steel industries will have to be made by the national associations of these industries.

"The development of German industry during the last five decades has been such that several concerns developed along the same lines, all producing the same things," Voegler said. "The wholly changed market conditions of the world following the war made it advisable to simplify the production process very much, and the merger was the logical result. Henceforth, a certain product will be manufactured at one or two places, instead of seven or ten. The foreign markets will be allotted to the works nearest to the great Rhine waterways while the domestic market will be supplied by the works further east, so that a lot of freight charges will be saved."

Future Is Bright

With the merger, Voegler believes, the future of the steel industry is bright.

"The prospects of the steel and iron industry are good," Voegler said. "If one compares the use of steel and iron in America and in Europe, one must be an optimist about the steel industry."

"The increased demand will come as soon as we have final assurance of a calm and steady political development."
The last cryptic sentence is particularly notable in view of the fact that the Prussian police suspect Voegler of being one of the financiers of the German fascists who were charged with having planned a putch to establish a Fascist dictatorship in Germany, as a result of which Voegler's home and office at Dortmund were raided by the police on hurried that its inquiry into the Illinois primary will require any great length of time. In fact it expects to be comparatively free to scrutinize the primaries in both parties.

The next important primary is in Missouri, August 3, where Senator Williams, Republican, is seeking the nomination without much opposition. There is a stout fight between Representative H. H. Hawes and Judge J. H. Cockrell for Democratic nomination.

A warm fight is slated for Alabama on August 10 for the seat which Oscar W. Underwood will voluntarily vacate. The Republicans are not interested here but the primary opposition is usually keen.

On the same day the anti-Saloon League enters the picture in Ohio, in stout opposition to Allice Pomerehne, former Senator, who is seeking the Democratic nomination. Justice Florence Allen of the State Supreme Court is said instructions from Berlin.

The concern which has been merged into the Vereinigte Stahlwerke are the Geisenkirchener Bergwerks Aktien Gesellschaft, the Bochumer Verein fuer Bergbau und Gusstahlfabrikation, the Rheinische Stahlwerke Aktien Gesellschaft, the Bergbau und Huettenbetrieb, the Vereinigte Eisenhuetten, and Thyssen & Co.

Krupps Back Out
The famous Krupp Works were to join the trust, but backed out at the last moment.

As it is, the trust controls about 50 per cent of the entire German iron and steel production.

The trust has also extensive coal fields estimated at 5,000,000,000 tons, which is sufficient not only to supply its own needs, but to make the trust one of the biggest coal dealers in Germany.

Its 151 mines now produce 24,000,000 tons a year and can produce 37,000,000—about 21 per cent of the whole production of the Ruhr.

The capacity of its blast furnaces is 9,000,000 tons of crude iron. Its steel production capacity is 6,000,000 tons a year.

But the trust also possesses 52,000 workers' homes—which, including the dormitories for the single men, are sufficient to house the larger part of its employees.

ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

Masses will be said every Sunday at St. John's church at Stege Junction at 8:30 and 10 a.m. Between the two masses Sunday school will be held.

The Sisters of the Holy Family will conduct Catechism classes every Saturday morning at 9:30 for the children of the parish and a large attendance is expected.

To have the league's active support and the activities of the dry organization will be closely watched.

In September the veteran Senator, Cameron, has a hard fight on his hands for the Republican nomination in Arizona.

Lenroot has a battle on his hands in Wisconsin, where Governor Blaine, Bob La Follette and the Anti-World Court sentiment are arrayed against him.

Iceberg Proves To Be Mirage

(By Universal Service)

NEW YORK, July 17.—After the Dollar Line President Adams reached its pier in the East river today from a trip around the world, the captain, W. A. Ross, told a sea yarn, the tale was not of sea monsters, but of icebergs. While the vessel was off the Isle of Sokatra, on her way from Colombo, Ceylon to Port Said, the afternoon of June 16, the captain went below to escape the heat of a scorching day, the temperature being 100°. Shortly after he had retired from the bridge he was quickly summoned by an officer who reported objects in the form of icebergs off the port bow. There was not one iceberg, but many. Some were particularly others in two tones, some in solid shades.

Captain Ross found the passengers "all forward," anxious to see the masses of ice.

It was a mirage.

SPORTS

U. S. GOLF, NET STARS PROVE ENGLISH JINKS

By ROBERT A. HEREFORD
(By Universal Service)
NEW YORK, July 16.—"Whit's the use of passing this one," sighed the motorist, as he roared by the perky little Ford in his eight-cylinder sports model, "there is sure to be another one of the blamed things just ahead anyway."

And that is the resigned attitude that many English sports fans must have adopted as the great American golf and tennis invasion in the history of sport came to a close.

What's the use of eliminating their champion? Another bloody Yankee is sure to step up and lift the cup.

When Bobby Jones, America's amateur pride, and her champion, went down fighting in the latter rounds of the British amateur golf tournament at Muirfield, English links fans sighed in relief. The old jinx which had thwarted the British amateur title aspirations of every American since the days of Walter Travis was still in good working order.

There remained in the tournament but one American, Jesse Sweetser, an amateur of real standing in the United States, but a man who had practically retired from the links during the past year and who certainly need not be feared seriously.

But Sweetser had watched his comrades, the flashy youth from Atlanta, Watts Gunn, Francis Oulmet of Boston, young Roland Mackenzie of Washington, D. C., and the incomparable Bobby, as they one by one dropped out of the tournament. He realized that the golfing prestige of the United States was dependent on the power of his drive—the steadiness of his putter.

And the continent once more witnessed an example of the competitive spirit which has carried America to the top of the sporting world. Sweetser duplicated Walter Travis' feat of winning the amateur crown, which had been kept out of the emigration ranks for twenty years.

After a disastrous start Walter Hagen suddenly found himself and overcame a staggering handicap to win his special match against Abe Mitchell, Britain's greatest competitive golfer and her chief hope in the British open tournament, one of the greatest events in the golfing world. Hagen had twice before carried the coveted trophy home with him and the British settled themselves resignedly to watch him turn the trick for the third time. But it wasn't Hagen, but Bobby Jones, America's amateur champion, who won the crown.

Wimbledon, where the great Tilden had so often displayed the genius of the American brand of tennis, before a continental audience, promised once more to advertise the superiority of American tennis, on its gala anniversary year.

State Aids San Pablo Paving in El Cerrito

The state highway commission has granted El Cerrito an initial appropriation of $25,735 for the paving of San Pablo within the city limits. The appropriation followed a series of conferences between the commission and City Attorney Wilbur S. Pierce and City Engineer Ross Calfee.

The appropriation is to be used toward the paving of unit No. 1, the cost of which is estimated at $95,000, the greater portion of which will be borne by the residents. This section of San Pablo avenue to be paved from curbing to curbing extends from the Santa Fe crossing to a point near Stage Junction.

Appropriations for the paving of Unit No. 2, as the present unincorporated section of San Pablo avenue is known have been assured by the highway commission. This stretch of the avenue is approximately three miles in length.

COAST GOLF TEAM BEATS THE MID-WEST

By WARREN BROWN
(By Universal Service)
WHITE BEAR LAKE (Ginn), July 17.—Those golfers from the Pacific Northwest, championed by A. S. Kerry of Seattle, handed representatives of the Mid-West eight separate trimmings in the first half of a team play performance at the White Bear Yacht Club here today. The Pacific Northwest four of the matches went to the final green for a decision in the feature event, Dr. O. F. Williams of Portland slipped Eddie Held of St. Louis, Trans-Mississippi champion, a four to three trouncing, speeding up on the last nine. The doctor wasn't so bad on the first nine, either, as he had a five for a 34, two under par, but he wandered from the straight and narrow and wound up with a six. Held kept pace with him for the outgoing round, and was only one down at the turn.

Harrison Johnson playing over his home course, picked up a live one in Don Stein of Seattle, and was trimmed 2 and 1.

Another golfing notable of the Midwest, Rudy Knepper of Onwentsla lost to Frank Delp of Tacoma at the final green, Delp holed an approach shot at the 338 yard, sixteenth from an eagle tree, which was no way to treat a man who was playing over the course for the first time.

Another Onwentslan, Dexter Cummings, led Jack Westland of Seattle, one up at the turn, but wound up one down.

Russell Martin of Flossmoor made a strong bid to win one match for his team, but his opponent, Forest Watson, of Spokane laid him a stymie at the eleventh and holed a 29-footer, for a win at the eighteenth. The other matches wound up as follows:

Dickie Plesner, Seattle, defeated Buxton Mudge, Exmoor, Chicago 1 up; Jimmy Wall, Spokane, defeated Don Carick, Toronto, 2 and 1; Chuck Hunter, Tacoma, defeated Emmerson Carey, Hutchinson, Kansas, 1 up.

Subways Are Held. Refuges for Quakes
TOKIO, July 17.—If an earthquake comes to Tokio hereafter the frightened populace may be seen scurrying for the subway.

The idea that the subway is the safest place to be in time of earthquake is advanced by Tokuj Hayakawa, managing director of the Tokyo Subway company, which is now building the first underground railway to be constructed in the Japanese capital. He cites the fact that several underground tunnels in Tokio were undamaged during the great earthquake of 1923.

OAKS
The Oakland baseball club is making an effort to bring the pennant within their grasp by adding a few more pitchers to their line up. The opinion of the sports writers is that new pitchers will be welcome. Leo Dickerman of the St. Louis Cardinals and Bob Oliver of an up state bush league have been added. Oliver will be started in one of the games against Portland next week.

MULCHAY
Phil Mulchay, the young pitcher on the Hollywood All Stars cast is again in trouble. Maybe it would be proper to say that he is still in trouble. He has been suspended and fined more than any other player in the league and it is expected that he will be given a stiff fine or a long lay off as the result of Oscar Vitt, player manager, cry that Mulchay is not in condition and is insubordinate.

TIGER FLOWERS
Tiger Flowers, the slightly colored man from Georgia who has been training in Venice has decided that the cold ocean breezes do not agree with him so that gentleman packed up bag and baggage and started for Los Angeles where he will do his training preparatory to the fight with Sailor Huffman at Ascot on July 24.

GOOCH
Catcher Johnny Gooch of the Pittsburgh Pirates will not be in the line up until Monday when the suspension placed upon him by President John Heyder will be lifted. Gooch was banned because of his conduct in a game with Giants some time ago.

PETTY SUSPENDED
Manager Wilbert Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers indefinitely suspended Jess Petty, left handed chucker for staying out after the twelve o'clock curfew two nights in succession. Robinson was going to fine his pitcher $100, but changed his mind.

Celebration At Opening OF Carquinez

ing voice was heard. Charles B. Hamilton operator of the hotel in the Hamilton chain was showered with congratulations on the wonderful appointments of the building, the comforts that had been provided for the guests and the dinner.

The dinner—there is something worth talking about. Again we feel that more than a passing compliment is due Senator Hamilton. Words fail us but if you want to know what it was and how well it was prepared and the efficiency in which the more than two hundred guests were served ask anyone who happened to be there.

But getting back to the beginning of the program. Downer and Bert Carter dragged an oversize bottle of Champagne into the dining room and set it up high on a table. Then Uncle Ed broke off the top or rather split the bottle and out jumped little Joan Calkins who christened the Richmond Community Hotel as the "Hotel Carquinez."

There was a program with many worthwhile numbers. The cello solos by Dorothy Dukes Dimm were well received. They included: "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," and "At Dawning." Then there were the tenor songs by Michael Patrick Brennan which included "Love Sends a Little Gift of Roses," and "I'm Watching for Ships that Never Come In." And the beautiful soprano voice of Marie Wallman, the radio artist who sang her own composition was broken for the building and today it stands completed, representing an investment of more than a quarter of a million dollars.

The Richmond Community Hotel Company, Inc., owners of the hotel, is headed by Edward M. Downer, president of the Mechanics Bank of Richmond. Charles S. Renwick, president of the Decora Manufacturing company is vice-president; H. A. Johnston, former president of the Chamber of Commerce is secretary-treasurer; T. H. DeLap, attorney for the hotel and C. C. Kratzer, Richmond auto dealer, constitute the remaining members of the board of directors.

Last night's event was arranged by the Chamber of Commerce. The general committee of arrangements was headed by H. A. Johnston. Chairmen of the various sub-committees included A. L. Paulsen, publicity; Aubrey Wilson, entertainment; C. C. Kratzer, decorations; Edward M. Downer and Mayor Mattie Chandler, reception; Harley Carter, chairman, dance committee.

The new Hotel Carquinez is truly a community hotel. It was built by local money subscribed by local men and women. It was constructed for the most part of materials manufactured in Richmond or Contra Costa county and every bit of material that went into its building and equipment was purchased through Richmond dealers.

The hotel is five stories high. It is strictly fireproof throughout. Lobby and lounge, dining room and guest room decorations and equipment are as fine as are to be found in any hotel of similar size in the United States.

The dining room service also

"Hearts That are Free" and "Serenade."

The Great Adolpho with his accordion and jokes—well take your choice. Those of you who were there will know what we mean. Adolpho is a great entertainer and he was popular.

Then there were the addresses and we take our hat off to Toastmaster P. M. Sanford—the talks were not only introduced as short and snappy—but they actually were. The speakers spoke to the point in telling of the advantages of the new hotel and in complimenting those who worked so hard to put the project over. These speakers included Mayor Chandler, H. A. Johnston secretary treasurer of the Hotel Company, Charles Renwick, a director of the Hotel Company, T. H. DeLap attorney and director of the hotel company, James Plachek the architect, H. H. Hilp, of the firm of Barrett and Hilp general contractor on the hotel, Joseph F. Brooks, manager of Standard Oil refineries in California, F. M. Tilden and Senator Charles B. Hamilton.

As a whole it was a celebration that those in attendance will long remember and one that fittingly opened the new Hotel Carquinez.

Ironworkers and Pittsburg Will Play Here Today

The Richmond Ironworkers will go up against the Pittsburg Y. M. I. this afternoon at 2:30 at the First street field in what is expected to be a snappy game. Phil Jones' crew has started the first half of the Three C league with a victory and expect to win another one today.

Admission prices for the general public have been lowered from fifty cents to thirty-five cents and a large crowd is anticipated.

Includes a lunch counter for the benefit of the busy business men. "The new Hotel Carquinez will stand as an everlasting monument to the foresight, the energy and the enthusiasm of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce," said Charles B. Hamilton in speaking of his newest hotel in the chain of California hostels which he operates. "Had it not been for the splendid response which the members of the Chamber of Commerce gave the suggestion, the fine cooperation, the active work of securing subscribers to the building fund, the community hotel would never have been built."

The flags used in the decorative effects were loaned by members of the Richmond Merchants association, and included Ward McCracken, Fred La Moine, Harry Alberts, Al Burdick, O. A. Poulson, Harley Carter, J. P. Strom, Ed Slattery, Fred Newsom, S. P. Skow, L. Garfinkle, C. Smith and A. Abraham.

Many Get Demonstration In The New Whippet On Display By Strom Starting Yesterday

More than 30 persons were driven in the new Overland Whippet car between the hours of nine and three o'clock yesterday when J. P. Strom, local Willys Overland agent, presented the new car to the public for the first time in Richmond. Since the announcement of the demonstration was first made in the RECORD-HERALD yesterday morning several advanced orders were taken for the Whippet, which is believed to have revolutionized cars of the smaller type.

Salesmen at the Strom agency at Thirteenth street and Macdonald avenue were kept busy until late last night explaining the features of the new car. Open house will be maintained all day today.

The economical use of the fuel is but one of the features of the Whippet. A guarantee is made of 240 miles to eight gallons of gasoline, the capacity of the tank, and 100 miles to a quart of oil.

The instrument board is the displaying the Willys-Knight, four seats are upholstered in mohair and there is ample leg space and head space.

Besides the Overland, Strom is displaying the Willys-Knight, four of which have already been sold since he took over the agency a week ago. His salesroom is fully equipped with parts and accessories for the new line of cars. The larger parts are located on the mezzanine and the smaller parts in a room adjoining the display room.

He also maintains a full line of automobile accessories in a shop adjoining the display rooms. A daylight work shop to the rear of the building is equipped to handle repair work.

While the sedan is the only model of the Whippet new on display in Strom's salesrooms, the Overland company is preparing to put on the market a coupe and a touring car of the same type as the sedan.

As a feature of the demonstration last night, music was furnished by Bill A. Jello and Earl Wheeler, the Radio Kids known as "Earl and Bill." They have broadcasted programs from several of the Eastbay radio stations.

"Whatever we may think of the telephone girl," says Eddie Cantor, "she is always plugging for us."

NEW BRITISH MOTOR LAWS AID PUBLIC

BY ROBERT J. PREW (By Universal Service)

LONDON, July 17.—By a new Criminal Justice Act which has just come into force, the law relating to motoring in Britain is strengthened on the behalf of the general public and careful drivers.

Drunken drivers are now subjected to special pains and penalties, the maximum punishment by four months' imprisonment or a fine of $250, or both. Moreover the discretion hitherto vested in magistrates of suspending licenses is removed in cases of drunkenness, the license being automatically suspended for at least twelve months, subject to any plea for revision after three months from the sentence.

The new statute deals with a miscellany of subjects. One provision carries the law a step further in regard to sex equality. From presumption of law that a wife commit a crime in her husband's presence, it is due to his coercion, and she was entitled to an immediate acquittal.

In further actual coercion by the husband will have to be proved by the defense. If it is proved it will be a good defense and the jury must acquit.

Any attempt to take a photograph or make a portrait or sketch during proceedings in any court has now become a penal offense (instead of a mere contempt of court), punishable by a fine of not more than $250.

It is not unusual in Britain for some people about to marry to make false statements as to their identity or age. The Prejudice Act now amended to make this an offense, for which an increased fine up to $250 may be imposed. The same applies as to false statements as to births and deaths.

The inconvenience and waste of time so often experienced at assizes of having to begin a trial anew because one of the jury dies or falls ill is now averted by a provision allowing a jury of not less than ten to continue the trial to the end, if both prosecution and defense agree to the trial so continuing.

Grand juries will not be called where all the prisoners committed from magistrate courts to assizes have pleaded guilty.

Results Of Star Six Economy Run Show Perfect Performance Of Fuel And Car

The remarkable results secured in the economy run of the Star Six using General Gasoline should mean a great deal in the life of the average motorist. Here is a combination of car and fuel that made a record in a run of over 1,000 miles of more than 32 miles a gallon as an average.

After the high cost of depreciation, gasoline is the greatest expense in the up-keep of a car. If the item of the cost of gas miles can be cut we are cutting at the very heart of the price that we pay to ride. Here are the figures of the cost per mile of operating the average car according to the Oil and Gas

Sixteen percent gasoline. Three percent oil, ten percent tires, twelve percent maintenance, thirty percent depreciation, twelve percent interest, three percent insurance, eight percent garage and six percent license.

Julius Dusevoir who drove the car over the run says that he can give the fuel considerable credit for the performance. Just as the car used was a stock car taken right out of the line at the Star plant, so the gasoline was regular "stock" gasoline, bought from General independent dealers along the way.

Think of boosting the average

20 miles that most drivers would like to get to a gallon but seldom do, to thirty-five or even thirty. The sixteen percent that goes for gas would immediately be cut till gas, tires, maintenance and interest would run a close race for the smallest percentage of the four.

Dusevoir maintains that while the gas that he used was "long in the legs" there was no sacrifice in power. A time limit was set on his schedule and he was forced to be at certain points every night. He was there each time with plenty of time to spare. Performance of both fuel and car were perfect throughout the grueling test.

STEEL BODIES ARE FEATURED IN NEW CARS

(By Universal Service)

By ROY C. HAYES

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—Business of launching the 1927 automobile is occupying the attention of the larger motor car manufacturers this month. Several of next year's cars have already been accounted for, including the Oakland, the Overland Whippet, Moon and Diana.

The Olds Motor works of Lansing, Mich., today, introduces its new line. At least four other new lines will be presented by the first of the month. Prices on the new cars remain the same as their predecessors in nearly every instance. In one or two cases, $10 or $15 is added to care for some additional equipment.

No radical departures in mechanical design are in sight for next year. Minor improvements, always being made, are noted, of course.

Most interesting among the coming developments is a wide acceptance of the steel body as a safety factor. Fenders generally are larger and more rolling. Motors are being placed on the instrument board in some cases. New fittings, designed to appeal to the feminine motorist find places in the majority of the new cars.

Production which has seen a tapering off in the last weeks of June and early July is again on the uprent. Nearly all of the larger producers with one exception will be at a capacity gait by the first of August. In an effort to take care of dealer organizations with a complete line of the newer cars.

One of the largest orders ever received by an automobile company was placed with the Chrysler Motor corporation Saturday when the John H. Thompson company, Detroit Chrysler distributors ordered his years quota of Chrysler cars, valued at $11,000,000.

In a wire from South Bend, A. R. Erskine, president of the Studebaker corporation, declares that the Studebaker plant will be operating at capacity by the first of the month. Four thousand men will be added to the pay roll in the near future, he declared.

With orders for 40,000 whippets on hand, the Willys Overland factory in Toledo is sold out on its new car for 60 days. Not one dime has been appropriated for advertising the new Whippet in July, an unparalleled circumstance in connection with the advent of a new car, so great has been the demand for the new light car.

June was the greatest month on record for Chevrolet, during the month the company built 77,241 cars and trucks, the greatest production achievement ever turned in by a manufacturer of three speed transmission cars. The company is speeding its expansion program toward an output of 1,000,000 cars a year gait.

Americans Fooled By London Guides

(By Universal Service)

LONDON, July 17.—Fairly tales to Americans touring London by untrained guides are being recently exposed by the newspapers here.

An English reporter who shared in a tour of London with a party of American visitors complains that a well-mannered guide described Admiralty Arch, at the end of the Hall, as "Constitutional Arch," which stands at the top of Constitutional Hill, at Hyde Park corner.

The same guide vouchsafed the misinformation that the Royal Family frequently attended the Church of St. Martin's-in-the-Field, fronting Trafalgar Square. He also informed the tourists when they reached Regent street that the "smallest shop here has the fabulous rental of $1,250 a week," the money going to the Crown.

One American this season questioned the guide's accuracy, and the off-hand explanation was, "Well, the King gets $5,000,000 allowance from the State, but of course he has to give a lot for charity." Actually King George's allowance is $550,000.

George Lee is spending his vacation at Rio Nido.

Storm Takes Eleven Lives

(By Universal Service)

CHICAGO, July 17.—The heat wave and storm sweeping the middle west has cost eleven lives according to reports received from throughout the country tonight.

In Chicago four deaths were attributed to the heat, while at Minneapolis three who had gone bathing to escape the heat were drowned and one died after heat prostration.

Three lives were lost in a tornado that swept over the country near Ashland, Wisconsin.

The storm that was over northern Wisconsin this morning had moved eastward and was over the St. Lawrence Valley tonight.

Ex-Crown Princess Sues for Estate

BERLIN, July 17.—The former Crownprincess Melita of Montenegro, a sister of the late reigning duke of the German state of Mecklenburg-Strelitz has sued the German republic for $2,500,000.

This amount, she claims, is due her as her share of the estate of her brother which was seized by the German government during the revolution and which now forms part of the $850,000,000 claims which the former German rulers have lodged against the republic.

German law, already inflamed by what are considered the excessive claims of the Princes, is turning particularly against the former German princess because she bases her claim on the Treaty of Versailles. She claims the seizure of the estate of her brother was a special war measure which under the treaty cannot be applied to citizens of other nations.

CAFETERIA TO BUILD IN PARIS

(By Universal Service)

PARIS, July 17.—A real American cafeteria-luncheon with the most modern equipment will be the main feature of the new Women's Home now going up in the Latin quarter.

The old Student Hostel on the Boulevard St. Michel, which has been the home of hundreds of women students in Paris during the past twenty years, is now being torn down and a larger and more beautiful one taking its place. Americans will take a particular interest in the new home, since it has been made possible by the generosity of Mrs. Grace Whitney Hoff, an American resident of Paris, who founded the hostel twenty years ago. And the architect is Charley Knight, a well-known American.

The foyer is the Paris center for women students who come from all over the world and offers a congenial environment where strangers will feel at home. It seeks to foster mutual understanding and sympathy, to combat prejudice and narrowness of view in national and other relationships.

The new building will be of grey stone and have accommodation for more than one hundred students. It will provide recreational and social facilities for a thousand more. There will be study rooms, a lecture hall, a large library and an information bureau. One of the main features will be the modern American cafeteria providing wholesome food at cost price in the shortest possible time.

The Bell System paid, during the year 1925, operating taxes amounting to $58,186,816.

The new home of Mayor James J. Walker in New York has a telephone in every room.
